

Reasonable perspective. Appropriate communication.

Alarmist home inspectors do a disservice to everyone. Our approach is to provide helpful perspective that buyers and sellers can incorporate into their decision-making processes. We communicate the results of our home inspection in easy-to-understand, non-alarming terms.

For buyers, our home inspection provides confidence in one of the largest investment decisions they will ever make. For sellers, our inspection adds a powerful marketing tool.

Alarms are for emergencies.
Perspective is for home inspection.
